Pickering Manor Hosts Free Seminar – Estate Planning

NEWTOWN, Pa. – Pickering Manor in Newtown will host a free, one-hour informational seminar titled “Estate Planning – What, where and why of Important Documents to Have” on Thursday, March 17th at 2 p.m. (226 N. Lincoln Ave.) The seminar will cover the topics of; Important Documents: What are they? Where should they be kept? Who needs to know where they are? The importance of emergency Record Guides: What are Vital Statistics? Who will need them? How will they be used? And the Best Way to Leave a Legacy: Removing the burden of Funeral Planning. Honoring your wishes. Leaving more to your Family. The speaker Reverend Scott Mitchell has been in pastoral ministry for over 25 years. As a Planning Counselor with the Life Celebration Benefits Group, Scott has helped many families with navigating the maze of senior planning issues. The seminar will include time for questions and answers.

Call 215-968-3878 ext. 1074 to reserve a seat for this free seminar as there is limited seating available.
